Stewart. I've talked to Bill. And he said he is leaving with his camper tomorrow. I'm able to leave then also but have to come back Saturday night or possibly Sunday early morning. What do I need to do for equipment grab. I'd like to get one of those 1-6 scopes and you guys were talking about those new plates yesterday. I don't think my carrier is big enough for them. Thoughts?

Still on way home. Hated to leave. That was tough. I hope you were satisfied with my performance. I try not to oversell myself so I didnt disappoint you. Things looked good with team identification vs actual names and locations. That messed them up. Throw another curve or change up to then tonight.

I talked to Steve about how it was. We need to capture strengths / weaknesses and ideas in a lessons learned book. Even get the KMRs to submit ideas and review/critique

Very satisfied. Actually, we should have used your experience more in planning and in establishing SOPs for op.

I was trying not to micro-manage Whip. In future we need to tighten up and have a REAL Op order.

Absolutely my mind has been burning all night with thoughts. I stopped at many rest areas and rested and stretches and tried to nap just going thru Columbus county (half hour from house) and stopped around our meeting at Doug's place Anything you want me to tell them? I was just going to chat and they are talking radio Frequencies here

Doug did very well on QRF last night. I had him roll with me as D1. Local driver, Chris, me in passenger seat and Doug and Bill in the back.

All good till the end of the night.

Then we had a situation where the KMR (Kentucky Mountain Rangers) had a black male following them. Their leader, "Roudy" called me and told me.

I told him "drive in a box and keep him busy till Whip can come to you" but it was too late. They had let this guy follow them almost all the way to our parking area.

I told him to go to the riverside park, turn around, and put your headlights on the guy and wait for Whip

So Whip and Todd go there, and we follow.

KMR guys were all out of their vehicles in a mob.

Whip and Todd went to either side of the vehicle and talked to driver. Driver was drunk. AND filming on livestream.

Whip and Todd were able to talk him down and handle it. We told the rest to go back to our parking area.

Guy was just an idiot who decided to follow the "militia guys" and film them.

Doug did point his AR at the guy in the car. Todd pushed Doug's muzzle down and told him "don't do that" but then he did it again and I told Doug "don't point your weapon at him". Doug walked back to the truck.

I think Doug's not happy about us telling him not to do that.

But he needs to let our cops handle situations like that. Whip and Todd are both cops. Let cops handle what is essentially similar to a traffic stop/interview.
